Freshers 28x30'

Freshers is a rough and thrilling drama series situated in a student fraternity. The son of a butcher, Bram Wagtmans, joins the prestigious society Ithaka. Bram finds out during his first days at the hazing camp that he is quite out of place. The young students in this series all have fantastic career prospects, but in order to become a genuine member of the old boys' network they will need to be accepted into a close-knit community in which friendships are cemented by alcohol and sex. A hazing ritual gone out of control changes the lives of a few of these freshmen forever.

Riphagen 3x50'

Riphagen tells the true story of Andries Riphagen, one of Holland's most notorious criminals during the Second World War. Riphagen enriched himself through the black market, by trading in the goods that had been left behind by Jews, and by tracking down and blackmailing Jews in hiding. He was to blame for the deaths of at least 200 people. The most exceptional thing about Riphagen's story is that he was never convicted. How this could have happened forms the backbone of the plot of this series.

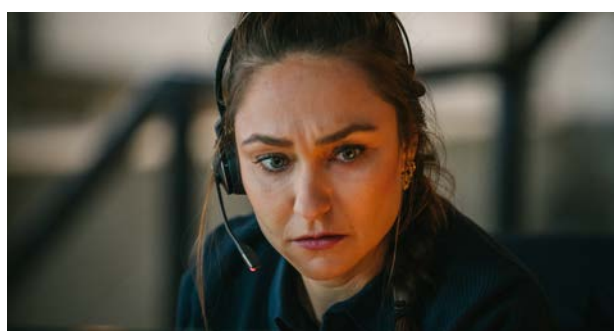

The Spectacular 5x50'

In the late 1980s, when the Northern Irish conflict known as 'The Troubles' is almost at its end, the south of the Netherlands is rocked by a series of horrific IRA attacks that target English soldiers stationed at army bases in Germany. Lead detective of the special investigation team Jeanine Maes goes on a thrilling hunt for Fiona Hughes, the most ruthless and feared female member of the IRA unit. Meanwhile, the terrorist unit are preparing an attack of unprecedented proportions in the Netherlands, known as 'The Spectacular'.
